URGES BETTER IRISH PROGRAM

Viscount Grey Begs British Government to Take Courage From History of Empire

CITES AMERICA LOSS

Plan for Policy Sufficiently General to Appeal to All Moderate Opinions, Is Made

London, Nov. 24. — (By the Associated Press). — The debate in the house of lords on Irish home rule today was made memorable by a notable appeal from Viscount Grey, former secretary for foreign affairs, to the government for an eleventh hour attempt by generosity to Ireland to fashion the bill into an acceptable measure.

In a speech displaying no resentment and taking full account of the government's extreme difficulties in Ireland, he urged that unless the government was able to secure effective control in Ireland, it would be better to withdraw all the armed forces and leave Ireland to find her own salvation.

Whether the appeal will be heeded, time will show, but it is significant that Earl Middleton intends tomorrow to move adjournment of the debate for a fortnight, to allow the government time to consider what amendments, financial and otherwise, it will propose.

Earl Middleton's motion, while genuinely aimed at securing the amendment desired by its promoters, is also intended as a definite trial of strength of the government's position in the house of lords in regard to the bill. It is a tactical move by the peers identified with the Unionists' Anti-Patriotic League, who believe that the members of the upper house who for any reason desire the bill amended will support Earl Middleton's motion.

The result of the division may in this case be very close and the possibility of the defeat of the government is discussed in the lobbies.

Must Have No Ambiguities

Lord Grey argued that it would have been better had the government, instead of preparing a detailed bill, started by laying down on broad lines the limits within which Ireland could have complete autonomy and the minimum which England must reserve for the security and safety not only of herself but of Ireland.

He outlined this minimum as, first, placing Ireland in precisely the same position with regard to foreign affairs as the great self-governing dominions with the same right to be consulted about commercial treaties, and second, only one army in these two islands. He would not, however, contemplate the maintenance of any imperial troops in Ireland after home rule had passed, unless Ireland desired it.

"I am perfectly certain, and the history of war shows it, that unless there is only one navy and one naval authority neither Ireland nor Great Britain could be defendant," said Lord Grey. "That must be without qualification. Whatever dominion home rule might mean, we must from the beginning have no ambiguity on this question."

With England and Ireland so close together and under modern conditions of mines and submarines, he continued, it was absolutely inconsistent with the safety of either country that there should be divided naval authority. He admitted that after what had happened in Ireland in the past few weeks he could hardly advocate as a practical course, as he did recently, that Ireland should be left to say what form of government she desired. But the time might come when the government would have to consider that method of procedure again.

Would Withdraw Armed Forces

He would have it clearly understood, he declared, that Great Britain could not so indefinitely being maneuvered into the position of either coercing Ireland or being coerced by Ireland, and the greatest lever the government could bring to bear to secure a settlement would be to make it perfectly clear that the ultimate responsibility for the government of Ireland rested with the Irish people, and that the government could not continue indefinitely to govern any part of Ireland by force.

He desired to qualify his previous suggestion, made before reprisals were heard of, that the armed forces should be withdrawn from Ireland two years hence. He would admit frankly that under the present state of things in Ireland he would never advocate that the armed forces should be kept there for another two years or any specified time.

Expressing indignation at the murder and activity for the lack of discipline of the crown forces, Viscount Grey declared that unless the government could secure direct and effective control in Ireland, it would be better to withdraw the armed forces now. He wished the government to have all powers for punishing crime, but these powers must be exercised with great care and control, and if that were impossible, then withdrawal was the better course.

Noting his doubt as to whether a constituent assembly or convention to settle the question was practicable, he said the financial clause of the bill

BEECHER WRITINGS DESTROYED BY FIRE

Sunday School Room of Famous Old Plymouth Church, Brooklyn, Is Razed by Flames

New York, Nov. 24. — Belief that an incendiary was responsible for the destruction early today of the historic old structure of Plymouth church, Brooklyn, for many years the pastorate of Henry Ward Beecher, was belittled by fire department officials tonight, following an investigation of the fire.

Fire Marshal Brophy stated it was his opinion that the blaze was entirely accidental and that it possibly could have been started by an overheated furnace pipe or crossed electric wires.

Priceless manuscripts and relics written and collected by Henry Ward Beecher, including many sermons in his own handwriting, were consumed by the fire that destroyed the Sunday school building adjoining the historic church. The old church edifice itself, erected in 1849, narrowly escaped destruction.

The Sunday school structure housed the church's library, which contained the original drafts of the fiery sermons delivered by Dr. Beecher between 1847 and 1865, as well as numerous Civil War relics collected by him, and all of them apparently had been burned before the fire was discovered.

In their efforts to save the main edifice, the firemen had to break ten memorial stained glass windows. The streams of water sprayed freely to prevent the flames from enveloping the building caused great damage to the costly pipe organ.

The fire is believed to have started in the engine room. The monetary loss has not been estimated.

TWO ARE ARRESTED FOR PIERCE MURDER

Man and Woman Held in Wheeling, W. Va., Declare Two Strangers Killed Philadelphia Agent

Wheeling, W. Va., Nov. 24. — Peter D. Treadway and Marie Williams, arrested here today in connection with the killing late last Saturday night of Henry T. Pierce at Philadelphia, told the police, according to a statement given out at headquarters, that Pierce was killed by two unknown strangers who escaped in the victim's automobile. The strangers forced Treadway and the Williams woman to accompany them at the point of a revolver, they declared. The two were examined by the police separately, according to the latter. Treadway, the police say, admitted witnessing the killing of Pierce, adding that he and his woman companion were in the room at the time. The woman, however, the police say, denied that she was present when Pierce was slain.

Treadway and the woman gave their addresses as Philadelphia. The latter said she formerly took part in a New York burlesque show.

LAKE STEAMER AGROUND.

Chicago, Nov. 24. — The iron steam freighter, D. M. Clemson, of the Pittsburgh line, a 600 foot long boat, is aground on Morgan shoals, two miles off Jackson park, having struck last night during a fog.

The boat tilted rapidly with water and coast guards from two stations stood by throughout the night ready to remove the crew of 35 men.

WILE AGAIN OCCUPY VIENNA.

Kovno, Lithuania, Nov. 24. — The Soviet representative, M. Alexandrovsk, has informed the Lithuanian government that the Bolshevik forces will be obliged again to occupy Vienna, according to advices received from Alexandrovsk.

The bill, the speaker urged the government to try and amend the bill and make it more acceptable by more generously regarding finance and by offering fiscal autonomy in the hope that it would bring about peace instead of demand peace as a condition of giving fiscal autonomy.

Attending to foreign opinion, Lord Grey hoped the government would endeavor to make the bill sufficiently generous to appeal to all moderate opinions.

Refers to Loss of America.

"We have the greatest empire in the world," he declared, "but it has not been without its reverses. We lost America through not giving in time and not giving enough. Have we ever in our history lost through giving too much? He instanced South Africa as an illustration and said it was not yet too late. As it stood the bill would only mean trouble in Ireland; but if the bill was passed there was a real prospect. He begged the government to take courage from the history of the empire and not throw away this opportunity, but give the house the opportunity of recording its verdict on a larger and better measure.

Viscount Bryce said that instead of cutting Ireland in two it would have been better to have had one parliament with all possible guarantees that the Union would be looked after. The Union would be looked after, he said, as it would be looked after by the Union. He hoped the bill would be passed and it was only by going still further that a settlement could be accomplished.

BARE LIVERPOOL DYNAMITE PLOT

Plans to Destroy Large Power House in Manchester Also Have Been Discovered

SCHEME ELABORATE

Numerous Warehouse Fires Were Planned to Divert Attention of Police and "Enemy" Forces

London, Nov. 24. — In his speech on the Irish situation in the house of commons today, Sir Hamar Greenwood, the chief secretary for Ireland, said detailed plans for the destruction of a large power house in Manchester and of docks in Liverpool had been discovered. The Liverpool plans involving use of 800 pounds of the high explosive gelignite at 21 points.

London, Nov. 24. — Altered plans for blowing up the Liverpool docks and the Manchester Power and Water plant are said to show that they were made in military fashion after detailed reports with drawings had been forwarded to Irish Republican army officers by spies at each place that was destined for destruction. The plans, which are said to have been captured when the documents relating to the spreading of typhoid and glanders were captured, were made public tonight after the statement from Sir Hamar Greenwood in the house of commons.

The Liverpool plans call for 23 officers, 27 engineers, 75 privates and 500 pounds of a high explosive for attacking 21 points, most of them dock gates, with a view to stranding ships.

Diversions suggested in the reports would consist of "numerous fire in cotton and other warehouses, starting a half hour before the other operations.

Apparently every precaution was taken for dealing with the "enemy forces," the police of both Liverpool and Manchester. The latter plan dealt with the destruction of the street car power plant in Manchester, serving both industry and tram lines, with hammers and explosives, and also the Clayton Valley Pumping station, that furnishes water to a large part of the city.

NATION'S BEST AVIATORS TRY FOR PULITZER TROPHY

Minneapolis, Nov. 24. — Two score flying machines, each of them capable of attaining a speed of more than 100 miles an hour, were lined up on Mitchell field here tonight, waiting for the signal which is to send them off tomorrow morning in the greatest aeronautical race in the country's history.

Virtually all of the nation's best army, navy and civilian aviators are entered in the competition for the Pulitzer trophy and the Liberty bond prizes valued at $5,100.

SON SAYS ROCKEFELLER HAS DONATED MILLIONS

New York, Nov. 24. — John D. Rockefeller has given away nearly half a billion dollars, his son, John D. Rockefeller Jr., declared here tonight in what is believed to be the first authentic detailed statement that has ever been made concerning his father's philanthropic gifts.

The approximate total of the gifts is $475,000,000, nearly half of which has been distributed in the last five years.

FOR G. M. ACQUISITION.

New York, Nov. 24. — The DuPont Securities Co. was incorporated today in Delaware with an authorized capital of $7,000,000, of cumulative preferred stock and 100,000 shares of no par value common stock for the purpose of acquiring shares of General Motors Corporation common stock from W. C. Durant.

SURVEY COAL NEEDS.

New York, Nov. 24. — A survey to determine how much coal is in Greater New York and what the fuel needs of the city are, will be made by the police department, it was announced today. Coal yards, factories and apartment houses will be visited and a report made to Mayor Hylan.

MULLAN SEEKS SENATE HONOR.

Rochester, Nov. 24. — Senator John B. Mullan, of the 19th district, today announced his candidacy for president pro tempore of the state senate. Senator Clayton H. Clark, of the 4th district, and Senator Charles W. Walton, of the 25th district, are believed to be his principal opponents.

PITCHER VAUGHN STARRED.

Kenosha, Wis., Nov. 24. — Jim (Hippo) Vaughn, a pitcher for the Chicago Cubs, was stabbed by his father-in-law at midnight last night during an argument at the Vaughn home. He is in a serious condition at the city hospital.

EX-QUEEN VICTORIA IMPROVED.

Doom, Holland, Nov. 24. — (By the Associated Press). — The condition of former Empress Augusta Victoria of Germany was much improved today. Her temperature was 100.4.

DOUGHTY FELL PREY TO AMATEUR SLEUTH

Remarkable Work of Portland, Ore., Beginner Ended World Wide Hunt for Secretary

Portland, Ore., Nov. 24. — Leaving today in custody of Austin F. Mitchell, chief of detectives of Toronto, Canada, John Doughty, former private secretary of Ambrose J. Small, millionaire theatrical man, who disappeared in December last year, was en route to the Canadian city to face charges in connection with the case. They were expected to stop at Chicago.

Doughty's movements from the time he left Toronto in December, were given out today by officers at Oregon City, where he was arrested Monday night. According to this information, Doughty first went across the international line to Buffalo, N. Y., where he spent a few days. Then he went to Milwaukee, Wis., taking a train later for Seattle. After a brief stay in Seattle, he came to Portland, where he stayed until he went to work at a paper mill in Oregon City, February 22.

How Doughty was caught as a result of the activity of an amateur detective, Ed Richardson, who recognized him in Portland about two weeks ago from a circular he had seen and his arrest by Constable Fortune of Oregon City, was told today by Richardson.

"I first recognized Doughty in Portland about three weeks ago," Richardson said. "I had seen a circular offering $15,000 reward for his arrest. I was standing on a street corner in Portland waiting for an Oregon City car. Doughty passed me and waited for a car couple of blocks further on. When I got on the car I again saw him and the resemblance to the circular impressed me."

"It was on a Sunday that I first saw him and I kept close tab until the next Sunday when I went to Ed Fortune and told him I wanted the help of an officer."

Richardson said they signed an agreement to divide the reward in case they were successful. Before he boarded the train today, Detective Mitchell said that he would recommend that the $15,000 reward offered by Mrs. Ambrose J. Small for the apprehension of Doughty should be divided between Richardson and Fortune.

More of Doughty's record which came to light in Oregon City today indicated he lived an exemplary life while there. Persons who knew him as Charles D. Cooper, a mill worker, expressed surprise at his arrest. The family where he boarded was said to be deeply grieved.

HOLD HIRSCHFIELD FOR ALLEGED LIBEL

Indictment Outgrowth of New York City's Vice Investigation by Extraordinary Grand Jury

New York, Nov. 24. — David Hirschfield, city commissioner of accounts, was indicted today by the extraordinary grand jury investigating vice conditions here, on a charge of publishing a libel against former Governor Charles S. Whitman and Assistant District Attorney James E. Smith.

After entering a plea of not guilty, Commissioner Hirschfield was released under $1,000 bail and given until December 1 in which to file motions.

The indictment charges the commissioner with making public on May 20, 1920, an alleged libelous statement obtained from Benjamin Friedman "unlawfully and maliciously intending and contriving to expose to hatred, contempt, ridicule and obloquy both Mr. Whitman and Mr. Smith."

Friedman's alleged statement charged that Assistant District Attorney Smith told him he was trying to "get" Dominic Henry, then police inspector, and that if Friedman would help he would be given protection in running a disorderly gambling house. The statement also declared that while Mr. Whitman was district attorney and Mr. Smith assistant, attempts were made to induce witnesses to testify falsely in criminal cases.

ARMED FORCE STOPPED ATTEMPT TO LAY CABLE

Miami, Fla., Nov. 24. — What was described as an attempt by the Western Union Telegraph company to connect its cables from Barbados to a cable from Miami at the west end of the causeway here today was stopped by an armed force from the United States submarine chaser 104.

Orders to prevent the connecting of the two cables were received by the commandant of this district from the navy department some time ago and the commandant of the submarine chaser had in turn been ordered to prevent any attempt at such an operation.

DINEN'S STRIKE CHARGE.

Washington, Nov. 24. — Secretary Tumulty today denied that he had advised leaders of the Hiram's coal strike last fall to call off the strike under penalty of exclusion from mail and telegraph facilities, as stated by John L. Lewis, president of the United Mine Workers, in an address last night at Belleville, Ill. Mr. Tumulty also denied that he had told strike leaders that troops would be used if the walkout continued.

TRIO INDICTED FOR EXTORTION

Wrought Iron and Steel Industry Is Linked With Building Trust in Latest Testimony

BRINDELL IN DEEPER

More Bail for "King" May Be Asked as Result of His Connection With New Charges

New York, Nov. 24. — New York's warfare against the alleged "building trust" today brought forth three new indictments charging extortion, as well as testimony linking the wrought iron and wrought steel industry to the long list of other producers of construction materials, which are alleged unlawfully to hold prices uniform throughout the country.

While the Allied forces of an extraordinary grand jury and the joint legislative committee made this progress in their major offensive, legal skirmishes occurred in two courts, and the city's independent inquiry into its millions of dollars in contracts was postponed until Monday.

Twice during the day, the joint committee was diverted from its investigation to defend itself against onslaughts in the courts. The committee was victorious on both occasions.

Miss O'Dea in Contempt.

Decisive defeat marked the efforts of the Builders' Supply bureau and those of supreme and appellate courts to restrain the committee from getting hold of its books and examining its stenographer, Elizabeth O'Dea. Two injunctions were secured by the counsel for the bureau, but were quickly vacated and later in the day an application for a stay was denied.

The counsel for the bureau agreed to produce the books and papers and under the subpoena and have an officer of the bureau on hand to testify. Miss O'Dea already had been adjudged in contempt by the committee for failing to answer a summons.

Robert P. Brindell, president of the Building Trades council and alleged "king" of building trades workers in the metropolis, was named in two of today's indictments, both charging extortion. The other indictment, also charging extortion, was against Brindell's "chief of staff," Peter Stadtmiller, a member of the Building Trades council.

Stadtmiller's bail was fixed at $100,000. Brindell, already under $100,000 bail on previous indictments — one charging extortion and the other attempted extortion — was not required to furnish additional bail, but it was intimated he might be called on to do so Friday.

Brindell Again Implicated.

Charges against Brindell alleged that he forced Louis J. Cohen, a building contractor to pay him $500 under threat of stopping work on a construction job last July. Stadtmiller was accused of extorting $1,000 from the Garden City Wrecking company by threatening to put the firm out of business in case of refusal.

His counsel vigorously protested the high bail, saying Stadtmiller was a poor man on a $75-a-week salary, but Judge Mulqueen said he understood there were to be other indictments and that Stadtmiller was Brindell's "chief of staff."

"The bail should be the same," he said. "It is high, but in my opinion it is not high enough." Then he ordered both defendants to appear in court on Friday.

Testimony that three-fourths of the rod steel trade in America is controlled by three powerful corporations, maintaining prices usually absolutely uniform, and that two great manufacturing concerns dominate the entire wrought iron business with similar effect, touched the peak of interest, which the evidence today brought forth.

HARDING CALLS ON PRESIDENT PORRAS

Earnest Solicitations For Friendly Relations Are Exchanged in Brief Meeting Near Border

Balboa, C. Z., Nov. 24. — (By The Associated Press). — President-elect Harding came through the Panama canal from Cristobal to the Pacific coast today and crossing into the Republic of Panama, exchanged with President Porras personal felicitations. Mr. Harding also expressed a warm hope for better relations between the United States and Panama.

Although declaring that he acted purely as a private citizen in making an informal call during his vacation visit to the canal zone, the President-elect conveyed in an earnest manner to the Panama executive his desire to see Panama established firmly in the affections of her southern neighbors.

Later, President Porras came across the boundary and on American territory told Mr. Harding that he warmly reciprocated these desires.

NATIONALISTS ENTER ERIVAN

Constantinople, Nov. 24. — It is reported from a Turkish source that Erivan, capital of Armenia, has been entered by the Turkish Nationalist forces of Mustapha Kemal Pasha.

WOULD DELAY RAIL INCREASE IN RATES

Jump to 3.6 Cents Per Mile Would Be Held Up Pending Consideration of Recent Decisions

Albany, Nov. 24. — Attorney General Charles D. Newton tonight took steps to restrain the railroads operating in New York state from raising their rates to 3.6 cents per mile pending the outcome of proceedings involving the question of state and federal jurisdiction now before the state court of appeals and the determination of the validity of the recent decision by the interstate commission by the United States supreme court. The attorney general declared that he was prepared to apply for an injunction on Friday in New York state where the larger railroads maintain headquarters.

"It is my aim," Attorney General Newton said, "to stay these proposed increases in interstate rates until the court of appeals of the United States supreme court acts upon the vital questions raised in the pending proceedings, and the state of New York is given an opportunity to test the recent order of the interstate commerce commission granting the increase to 3.6 cents per mile."

The injunction proceedings to be instituted by the attorney general were hastened by the announcement of the New York Central and Long Island railroads that they would file the increased tariff schedules immediately.

New York, Nov. 24. — New tariff providing for 20 percent increase in local passenger rates, authorized under the recent decision of the Interstate Commerce commission, were submitted to the Public Service commission, First district, by the New York Central and the Long Island railroads today. The schedules which Commissioner Barrett announced were not filed formally, applied to all local rates except those for monthly commutation tickets, which will remain unchanged.

Commissioner Barrett said the commissioner's counsel who is authorized to take an appeal from the Interstate Commerce commission's decision, has conferred with the Second District Public Service commission at Albany and the National Association of Railway and Utilities commissioners in Washington. Counsel, he explained, desires to take action which will result in a stay, pending the commission's appeal to the United States supreme court, but if this is not found practicable, he declared, "this commission probably will take some action in the state courts to prevent the collection of the 20 percent increase within its jurisdiction."

O'CONNOR TO WATCH RELEASE OF LIQUOR

Amount Diverted to Beverage Purposes Will Be Minimized if Officer's Plans Are Effective

New York, Nov. 24. — Plans to restrict every shipment of liquor withdrawn on permits to legitimate uses and to minimize the amount diverted to beverage purposes, were announced tonight by Charles R. O'Connor, federal prohibition director for New York. Close watch will be kept on every consignment of liquor from the moment of issuing the permit for withdrawal until purchase by the ultimate consumer.

The plans include conferences with representatives of the drug trade to ascertain the exact demand for liquors and notifying federal enforcement officers of the delivery of any part of a shipment called for.

The situation relative to forgeries is well in hand, said Mr. O'Connor. Of 1,724 permits issued by his office to wholesale dealers, 509 have been revoked, he declared, because of abuse of privileges accorded under the permits.

GERMAN PLANES SOLD TO AMERICANS ARE HELD UP

Berlin, Nov. 24. — Eleven aluminum German airplanes sold to an American concern and loaded on a ship in Hamburg have been ordered held up by the Inter-Allied Aeronautical commission, which alleges a violation of the Versailles treaty. It is officially announced here, German manufacturers claim the contracts for the airplanes were drawn since July 19, when, in their opinion, the prohibition against the manufacture and sale of airplanes under article 202 of the Versailles treaty expired.

The commission is understood to claim authority from the council of ambassadors in Paris to prevent countries from airplanes with Germany having complied with article 21, which directs the delivery of air material to the Allies. The German government has announced it will protest against the commission's action.

BOLD HOLD UP IN NEW YORK.

New York, Nov. 24. — A well-lighted snort on Central Park West, near an entrance to Central park, was the scene of a hold-up and murder early today. Three men, who escaped, ordered a man believed to be Frank Barrow, of this city, to hold up his hands, and when he refused one of them fired a shot in the scuffle that followed the man was killed by a blow on the head.

DISCOVER BOMBS IN DUBLIN RAID

Search of Irish Transport Workers' Hall Reveals Stores of Arms and Ammunition

SECRETED IN WALLS

Large Quantities of Documents and Flags Are Carried into Streets By Military

Dublin, Nov. 24. — Military and police forces raided Liberty hall headquarters of the Irish fire sport organization, the hall, which was started in 1909, was still continuing to burn.

Among those arrested were Thomas Johnson, secretary of the Irish labor party, and Thomas Parnell, formerly president of the Trades Union congress.

The search of the hall was thorough. The walls were opened and the floor torn up and it is alleged arms, ammunition, bombs, uniforms and gunpowders were found. A large quantity of documents and flags were carried into the streets.

Respect Military Dead.

A notice issued at Dublin Castle today states that the bodies of the nine British officers who were murdered last Sunday will be taken from the George V hospital Thursday morning. The cortege will pass along the quays to the north wall, where the bodies will be taken aboard a destroyer for transport to England.

The Castle authorities requested that as a mark of respect for the gallant dead, all shops and places of business in the city be closed between 10 o'clock and 1 o'clock in the afternoon.

Prosecute News Writers.

Dublin, Nov. 24. — The first prosecution against a newspaper under the restoration of order in Ireland, opened at a court martial in the Royal barracks today. The proceedings are against directors Martin Fitzgerald and Hamilton Edwards, and Editor T. J. Hooper of the Freeman's Journal. They were charged with publishing false reports and reports calculated to cause dissatisfaction.

The men were summoned on two charges, one relating to the alleged flogging of a youth at the Portobello barracks, and the second to the killing of two policemen near Tullow. A third charge has been withdrawn by the authorities.

Police Party Ambushed.

Belfast, Ireland, Nov. 24. — Two automobiles containing the police and witnesses returning from a Londonderry court martial, were ambushed last night near Omagh, county Tyrone. The attacking party fired a fusillade at the party and three constables and two chauffeurs were wounded. One of the assailants of the party was arrested by the military.

Arrest Sinn Fein Banker.

Belfast, Ireland, Nov. 24. — David Kelly, manager of the Sinn Fein bank in Harcourt street, Dublin, was arrested at his sister's residence in Brunswick street here today. He is a brother of Alderman Kelly, lord-mayor-elect of Dublin.

Features Irish Debate.

London, Nov. 24. — (By The Associated Press). — The most conspicuous incident in the Irish debate in the house of commons today was the revelation by Sir Hamar Greenwood, chief secretary for Ireland, of Sinn Fein plans to destroy property in Liverpool and Manchester — a revelation which was greeted by Joseph Devlin with the exclamation "all that was written in Dublin castle."

In other respects, the debate followed the customary lines. Former Premier Asquith moved a resolution expressing abhorrence of the recent Dublin assassinations and condemnation of reprisals and urging immediate steps to bring about Irish pacification. An amendment by Colonel John Ward converted this motion into an expression of admiration for the courage and devotion of crown forces in Ireland. This was adopted by 203 to 82, and the motion as thus amended was adopted by acclamation amid ministerial cheers.

PLAN PATRIOTIC CONVENTION.

New York, Nov. 24. — The National Security league tonight announced a conference would be held here December 1 to 3 in such a "country-wide movement for the co-ordination of American patriotic efforts and similar efforts."

As an initial step in the plan for a Washington identity convention of leading patriotic and civic organizations from every state in the union, the movement is being fostered under the joint auspices of the league and the American Legion. It was stated.

SUMMON STENOGRAPHER.

Washington, Nov. 24. — Adolph Anso, stenographer to Chairman Hanson of the shipping board, was today summoned to appear before the Walsh committee in New York investigating court operations. Friday, he reported the statement made by R. W. Boling, treasurer of the board, on Saturday in answer to charges of bribery preferred before the committee, and was ordered to produce his note and a certified copy of the transcript.

MONEY PLENTIFUL AT USUAL SIX PER CENT

Offerings of Time Funds Are Liberal as Are Purchases of Merchants' Paper

New York, Nov. 24. — The secondary market of prices on the stock exchange today, in which many leaders canceled a substantial part of their recent recoveries, suggested that financial conditions imposed further revisions of quoted values.

Dealings were much smaller than on any previous day of the week, for which tomorrow's holiday was probably responsible. The confidence manifested by the short interest, however, evidently had its justification in the ease with which the market receded.

Money conditions remained easy, with an abundance of call loans at 6 per cent and more liberal offerings on time funds and purchases of merchants' paper, but industrial and commercial advances merely concerned the growing conviction of the inevitable slackening of trade.

Further cancellation of merchandise was referred to by banking interests as one of the evils confronting the domestic business situation and the sharp decline in imports of luxuries threw an interesting sidelight on the attitude of the buying public. Steel mills reported more cancellations of unfilled orders and sales of copper for home consumption were made at 14 cents, the lowest price in years.

An extreme decline of almost nine points in Atlantic Gulf affected other whippings by two to four and a half points. Representative industrialists eased on to four points with oil and motors and runs of the speculative group and investment group lost one to three and a half points. In most cases rallies of one to two points ensued at the close. Pittsburgh and West Virginia making an actual gain of 5 1/2 points on large dealings.

Foreign exchange markets were full and mainly lower. The Shanghai rate reflecting another decline in bar silver in London. Of the continental European markets, the German and Spanish remittances were weaker. Bonds were dull and featureless.

EVENTS AT THE Y. M. C. A.

State League Bowlers Make Better Showing in Second Preliminary Series. Yesterday—Basketball Team Plays at Unadilla Tonight.

The bowling team which is representing the Oneonta Y. M. C. A. in the state tournament last year, held its second practice last evening at the local alleys and made a better record than in the first games earlier in the month. The total pinage of the five men last night was 2,554, which is 154 more than the total of the first practice. All the teams in the state contest were to have bowled yesterday, and the results will be sent in to G. W. McCarthy, official scorer, who will then compile the standing of all the teams entered. Oneonta stood eighteenth in the state in the first series and as its total pinage is considerably better this time, it is not improbable that the local team will be nearer the top.

The results of last night's contest were as follows:

Lambros 178 151 200
Graves 166 152 193
Thomas 221 191 159
McKean 185 154 171
Babbitt 156 142 210

Totals 999 829 928

Individual three-game totals —

Lambros, 522; Graves, 513; Thomas, 563; McKean, 533; Babbitt, 508. Total pinage, 2,654.

The "Y" alleys will be open from 3 to 10 p. m. today to accommodate the usual "holiday rush."

Other Y. M. C. A. Activities.

The local "Y" will be represented on the basketball court tonight for the first time in several years, when a team that has been recruited among "Y" members will play the American Legion quintet of Unadilla, at Unadilla. The lineup of the Oneonta team is composed of Davey Thomas, Everett Kniskern, Jr.; Ray DeLaney, Jr.; James Tansett, Jr.; "Cap" Dibble, Jr. and Francis Harper and Sherry Barton, substitutes. All of these men have played on the court in years past and should make a good showing tonight. They are requested to meet at the "Y" at 8 30 o'clock to make the trip to Unadilla. The game will be called at 8 p. m. in the gymnasium of the Unadilla High school.

Four boys were initiated into the membership of the Boys' club at a regular meeting held last evening. The initiation ceremony, as usual, kept the boys entertained for an hour, and for good measure there were lots of games and other amusements. This afternoon will be open house at the boys department, and the boys are invited to bring along their sisters, mothers and girl friends. The hours will be from 3 to 5.

SURVEY COAL NEEDS.

New York, Nov. 24.—A survey to determine how much coal is in Greater New York and what the fuel needs of the city are, will be made by the police department, it was announced today. Coal yards, factories and apartment houses will be visited and a report made to Mayor Hylan.

Worcester Literary Club Celebrates Event at Meeting Monday Night.

Worcester, Nov. 24. — One of the most enjoyable occasions of the season took place Monday evening when 40 members, together with a few friends of the Worcester Literary club, met at the home of Mrs. George Shaw to commemorate the 300th anniversary of the landing of the Pilgrims.

The members appeared in costume representing Gov. and Mrs. Bradford, Miles Standish, John Alden, Praxilla, Elder Brewster and many other Puritan gentlemen and ladies. The friendly Indians were also there in ages from the sash down to the moccasins.

On a table in the center of one of the rooms was an appropriate arrangement of Plymouth Rock with the same coating in.

After all assembled, the meeting was called to order by the president, Mrs. J. J. Johnson, and in keeping with the thought of the first Thanksgiving, the doxology was sung and prayers were offered by Mrs. C. B. Henry, after which the company was served with a very tasty luncheon.

The last number on the program was the song "Thanksgiving" by the club. Mrs. Shaw read a paper, "The Pilgrim Fathers," which showed much thought and ability. Mrs. C. B. Henry sang the old song, "The Landing of the Pilgrims," which was followed by a reading, "The First Thanksgiving Day," by Miss Florence S. Fawcett.

Miss Madeline Truitt played a piano solo and Mrs. L. W. Bellinger sang.

THE MAN WITH VIGOR A WINNER

No Wonder Some Folks Have a Hard Time Getting Ahead

IT TAKES RED BLOOD TO SUCCEED

Pepto-Mangan Restores Vigor—A Really Wonderful Tonic—Purifies and Tones Up the Blood

It takes vitality to succeed because success requires hard work. Some days you get along all right. Other days you have to strain and you over-exert yourself. When that happens your system is overtaxed. It shows first in the blood. The over-exertion causes an increase in waste matter. The blood struggles to take care of it all. Gradually the persons in the waste increase too fast for the blood. Then the blood becomes clogged. First thing you know you feel all dried out. Next day you feel worse. You can't eat well. You wonder what the trouble is. This is the time to get some Pepto-Mangan, the blood building tonic. Take it for a while till your blood is cleared up. You'll soon have plenty of firm, red blood. Notice the difference in your work. Your old-time energy returns. You win our bet—you are stronger.

Pepto-Mangan is sold in both liquid and tablet form. The tablets have the same medicinal value as the liquid. Take either and you prefer. But be sure you get the genuine Pepto-Mangan. "Gode's" is the full name. "Gode's Pepto-Mangan" should be on the package.

Thanksgiving Secured

The man or woman who is the fortunate possessor of one or more Investment Securities of the right sort, has true cause for Thanksgiving.

Whether you are one of our clients or not, if you have wisely invested at least a part of your spare funds in good securities, they are now no doubt, your chief cause for Thanksgiving.

During the year to come, we can be of assistance to you in making your next Thanksgiving a day of even greater appreciation. We shall be very happy.

THE FORTIETH ANNIVERSARY.
Friends of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Davis Give Them Genuine Surprise.

Morris, Nov. 24.—Forty years ago Wednesday, Nov. 17, Eugene Davis and Miss Anna Elliott, both of Morris, were married. As a reminder of the occasion, a number of their friends and relatives gathered at their residence last Wednesday and gave them a genuine surprise. They brought along their own refreshments and had an enjoyable time.

Tuesday Mrs. Irene Matteson left Morris and will go to Norwich, where she will spend most of the winter with her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Henry G. Barker. She will also visit other daughters in and near Greater New York.

Locals and Otherwise.
H. J. Russell and wife of Cooperstown were in Morris last week visiting Mrs. Edna Sanderson, sister of Mrs. Russell. — Howard Southern, who works at the Morris manor, went to New York Monday.—The Thursday Afternoon Nursing class, conducted by Miss Clary, will be omitted this week.

—Last week, Henry McWilliams of the firm of McWilliams & Miller, sold his farm near Hillington cemetery to George W. Meade of Holmesdale. — Our Free library has been running a year now and the number of names placed on the borrowers' register was 490. It has been well patronized and is a good thing for Morris.

Nose Broken in Auto Crash.
Snow on Windshield Causes Head-On Collision Tuesday.

Milford, Nov. 24.—David L. Sayre of this village has a broken nose and Mrs. Harriet Saxton, Mrs. Elva Southworth, C. E. Osborn and E. H. Rider have several cuts and bruises as the result of an automobile accident near Portlandville Tuesday, about 12:30 p. m.

Mr. Osborn, Mr. Sayre, Mrs. Saxton and Mrs. Southworth were on their way to Oneonta in Mr. Osborn's Cleveland touring car, to attend the funeral of Miss Sarah Soule, and when near the residence of C. S. Morris, below Portlandville, Mr. Osborn noticed a car coming toward him, well in the center of the road. The car turned out to be the Overland meat truck, also owned by Mr. Osborn, and driven by E. W. Rider, who was returning from his delivery trip to Colliers. The windshield of the truck was covered with snow and Mr. Rider was not aware of the approach of the Osborn car until too late to avoid a head-on collision.

The force of the crash threw the occupants from their seats, but all escaped with a few cuts and bruises except Mr. Sayre, who suffered a broken nose. That the others were not more seriously injured is remarkable.

The radiators of both cars were smashed, the front springs broken, fenders bent and lights broken. One wheel on the truck was also broken and the windshield on the Cleveland. The occupants of the car were brought back to this village in the Morris car and the wrecked cars towed to the Francis garage.

Potatoes Still Lower.
The potato market here took another drop in price Tuesday from $1.10 to $1.09 per bushel.

Closed for Thanksgiving.
The Milford High school closed this afternoon for the Thanksgiving vacation and will reopen next Monday.

The Milford National bank will be closed all day Thursday, Thanksgiving day, and the post office part of the day.

Brought Here for Burial.
The body of Miss Sarah Soule, a former resident of Milford, was brought here Tuesday afternoon for interment in the family plot in Milford cemetery. Services at the grave were conducted by the Rev. N. B. Ripley of the Methodist Episcopal church and were attended by many friends and relatives.

Persons.
Mrs. M. M. Whitney and Mrs. N. B. Bromer of Little Falls were callers in town last Friday. — Mrs. C. J. Armstrong returned Saturday from a two weeks' trip to Rochester and Springfield, Ohio, where she visited her niece, Mrs. Irvin Tucker and nephew, James P. Tucker. — Mr. and Mrs. T. M. Hickey and Mrs. Grace Andrews returned Sunday from New York city, where they have been spending several days.

AT WEST ONEONTA.
Union Thanksgiving Service at First Baptist Church This Evening.

West Oneonta, Nov. 24. — The union Thanksgiving service will be held at the First Baptist church Thursday evening at 7:30 o'clock. A good attendance is desired.

Chicken Pie Supper and Sale.
The Ladies' Aid society of the Free Baptist church will have a chicken pie supper and sale of aprons, fancy articles and home made candy in the parlors of the church on Friday evening of this week. Supper will be served from 6 o'clock until all are served. A cordial invitation is extended to the public to attend.

Covenant Meeting Saturday.
The monthly covenant meeting of the First Baptist church will be held Saturday afternoon.

Locals.
Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hendricks and granddaughter are spending a few days with Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Cook at Binghamton. — Mrs. G. L. Lundgren has been spending the past week in New York city. — Miss Jessie Jenks entertained her cousin, Mrs. Leland Ferguson, of Swanton, Vt., Monday.

MIDDLEFIELD CENTER.
Middlefield Center, Nov. 24. — Thanksgiving services were held in the session room of the church on Wednesday evening at 7 o'clock. — A rural comedy drama in three acts, entitled "Deacon Dribbs," will be given in the church on Thursday and Friday evenings, Dec. 16 and 17. — The Sunday school is making arrangements to have a supper and Christmas tree in the church. The time will be announced later. — Mrs. Danbe and daughter, Josephine, visited relatives in Whip Corners Saturday and Sunday. — Mrs. T. and Mrs. H. Cunningham spent Saturday in Cherry Valley.

MARYLAND MENTION.
Maryland, Nov. 24. — Edward Van Leuven is moving his family into the house recently purchased by the Wood Products company. — Arthur Cobine and family moved to Oneonta Saturday. — Mr. and Mrs. Sanford Penner and children are moving to Oneonta. — Mr. and Mrs. Jaeger, who have been in Maryland since last spring, have returned to their home in New Jersey. — A surprise party was given Mrs. Jaeger Thursday evening. The time was spent in playing five hundred.

WESTFORD LOCALETES.
Westford, Nov. 24. — Rev. J. C. Rice of Middlefield and Rev. P. W. Cornell of Schenectady were guests one day last week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Breese. — Mrs. Samuel Vaughn and little daughter of Valatie have been spending a few days with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Z. L. Lansing. — Byron Granger is in very poor health and under the care of Dr. Bolt of Worcester. — Mr. and Mrs. Lee McRorie and Mrs. Floyd McClintock were in Oneonta Saturday.

SCHEENETS NOTES.
Schenectady, Nov. 24. — Mrs. Leroy Gardner of Cleveland, Ohio, is the guest of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. S. Chase. — School closed Wednesday afternoon for the Thanksgiving vacation. — Miss Flora Longwell of Worcester is visiting Mrs. George M. Tillapaugh. — Mrs. Estella Pier is spending a short time with her daughter, Mrs. DeForest Fancher, in Oneonta.

LOCAL MENTION.

—There will be Thanksgiving services at the West End Baptist church this evening at 7:30 o'clock.

—There will be no paper issued from The Star office Friday morning. This is done that the entire staff may unite with other citizens in the enjoyment of the national holiday.

—The fire department was called to A. J. Bookhout's store on Dietz street yesterday morning by a still alarm. Smoke from the furnace was the cause of the alarm. No damage was done.

—There will be no delivery of mail by carriers in Oneonta, day or night, today, Thanksgiving day. The post office will be open until 10 a. m. for the usual business at the windows.

—Elsewhere in this issue appears a condensed report of the financial condition of the Second National bank of Cooperstown, in accordance with the recent call of the comptroller of currency. The statement gives added evidence of the strength and good management of that well known banking institution.

—While you are partaking in ease and comfort of your Thanksgiving dinner today give a thought to the thousands of children in European countries who are starving, and mail in your check to the Daily Star-Literary Digest Child Feeding fund. Checks payable to The Star will be promptly forwarded to New York headquarters.

—Red Cross headquarters in the post office building will be closed all day today. Any citizens who desire to renew their memberships for 1921 may call at Stude's news stand on Broad street, where a supply of blanks is on hand. Reports to Chairman Ingram yesterday indicated that the enrollment was proceeding satisfactorily. He hopes to make a complete report by the first of next week.

SHOULD CALL FOR WAR MEDALS

Also For Handsome Booklet Giving History of County's Activities.
Many of the soldiers and sailors serving in the World War from Otsego county have not called for nor received the handsome medals provided by the county as token of the appreciation of their fellow citizens. At the time the medals were secured, there was printed also a handsome booklet giving in brief form the activities of the home folks in financing and supporting the boys at the front. A copy of this booklet will be invaluable in future years. In fact, it is doubtful if the facts could be collated now for this publication.

It is earnestly requested that all veterans of the war who have not received their medals and book, that they call on Justice Kellogg at his chambers in this city or address him and secure them. They will be prized in future years by one's children and other descendants and it is desired that all the men going in to the service from the county receive them. Later, other disposition will be made of the books and probably of the medals.

Meetings Friday.

The Ladies Aid society of the United Presbyterian church will hold its monthly meeting in the church parlors Friday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock.

Regular meeting of Oneonta circle, No. 248, P. H. C., in B. of R. T. hall, Friday evening at 8 o'clock. Induction and nomination of officers.

Oneonta camp, No. 22, Golden Seal Assurance society, at 8 o'clock, in I. O. O. F. hall, Chestnut street.

The regular meeting of the Woman's auxiliary of the Y. M. C. A. will be held on Friday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. All members are urged to be present.

The men of the Lutheran church will meet in the church parlors Friday evening of this week to consider important business matters and plan for the annual canvass of the congregation. Let every man be present.

Attention, W. R. C.

All members of the Woman's Relief corp are requested to meet at the home of Mrs. C. J. Westcott, 49 Elm street, Saturday, Nov. 27, at 1:30 p. m., to attend the funeral of our past president, Mrs. Minerva Jackson.

Attention, Cadets.

Company G cadets will drill Friday evening at the armory at 7 o'clock.

Take Notice that the undersigned will sell at public auction on November 29th, 10 o'clock a. m., at the barn in rear of 42 Elm street, one Buick truck, Terms, cash. HOLIDAY SPIRIT RIFE

MANY "WELCOME HOMES" WILL MARK THANKSGIVING DAY IN ONEONTA.

Union Service at First Presbyterian Church This Morning; Special Programs in Other Churches—Many Social Events Over the Week-End.

If the large number of persons who stepped off trains at the union station during yesterday is any indication, today, Thanksgiving day, will be a great "welcome home" day in Oneonta. It seemed that nearly every college student had returned to spend the day with the home folks and numerous business men who could get away arrived here for the same purpose. The snowfall of last night assured Oneonta of having a "white Thanksgiving" and gave the city a real holiday aspect, especially in the business section, where numerous tastefully decorated windows, well illuminated, reminded one of the slogan "Do Your Christmas Shopping Early."

All business places and the city offices will be closed today, and citizens will unite generally in observing the national holiday. For those who are in a spirit of thankfulness, there will be numerous services in the city churches at which prayers of thanksgiving for the blessings of the past year will be offered.

This morning at 10 o'clock, a union service of the Protestant churches will be held in the First Presbyterian church. The program is as follows: Invocation. Rev. B. M. Johns, D. D. Hymn. Congregation. Scripture Reading. Rev. E. J. Farley, D. D. Anthem. Choir. Prayer. Rev. C. S. Pendleton, D. D. Hymn. Congregation. Announcements and offering. Anthem. Choir. President Wilson's Proclamation. Rev. P. M. Luther. Sermon. Rev. J. C. Russell, D. D. Hymn. Congregation. Benediction. Rev. F. M. Caughey.

At 1:30 o'clock tonight, a special Thanksgiving program will be carried out at the Elm Park Methodist church, to which the public is invited. The pastor, Rev. J. C. Johnson, will deliver a Thanksgiving sermon, and there will be recitations and songs by the children. The complete program follows:

Doxology.
Responsive Reading—The Lord is My Shepherd.
Prayer by the Pastor.
Hymn, No. 9 in the Hymnal.
Recitation, Cecil Foulston.
Reading, Mrs. Orr.
Solo, Clarence Strait.
Reading, Mrs. Foulston.
Reading, Miss Buckley.
Song, Mrs. Dean's class.
Reading, Mrs. Dougherty.
Recitation, Felix Barnett.
Song, Mrs. Hubbard's class.
Hymn, Congregation.
Sermon by the pastor.
Anthem by the Choir, "Crown Him King of Kings."
Benediction.

At St. James' Episcopal church, there will be Thanksgiving services at 8 a. m. and 10:30 a. m. There will be Holy Communion at both services, and a sermon by Rector R. A. Forde at the latter.

At St. Mary's Roman Catholic church, there will be a mass of Thanksgiving at 8 a. m.
At the Wilson Memorial church on Hunt street, there will be special services at 8 a. m.

Thanksgiving Amusements.

Several social events apropos to the Thanksgiving season will be held over the week-end. Tonight at the armory takes place the annual induction ball of Company G, New York Guard, and indications are that there will be a brilliant crowd. Tomorrow night, there will be a Thanksgiving dance at the Oneonta club.

Managers of the two local theatres have arranged attractive programs for the holiday crowds. At the Oneonta theatre, "Up in Mary's Attic," a picture that drew capacity houses yesterday, will be repeated today, together with motion pictures of Pope Benedict and the visiting American Knights of Columbus. At the Strand, Constance Talmadge, always a laugh-provoker, will be seen in "The Perfect Woman," with the usual added comedy attractions.

OPEN MEAT MARKET.

Kenney Brothers to Open Attractive Meat Market on Dietz Street.

Lawrence and John Kenney, who have for some time been employed at Williams' meat market, Chestnut street, have for the past week been remodeling the store formerly occupied by the Lane Electric shop, on Dietz street, where they expect to open a first class meat market on Saturday morning. The interior of the store has been freshly painted and papered with white, which makes a sanitary appearance. New counters and a large cooler are arranged in a very convenient way, which adds greatly to the appearance of the store.

Both the Kenney brothers are well known in this city and have made many friends while in the employ of Mr. Williams. They will also handle butter, eggs and cheese. Although the credit business is successful, the Kenney brothers wish to state that their business will be run on the "Cash and Carry" system.

The Wamkena Coffee shop, regular 75c lunch reduced to 60c, served from 12 to 1:30. Regular $1.25 dinner reduced to $1.00, served from 1:30 to 7.

CITY PROSPEROUS

Outlook Favorable in All Lines of Local Business

EVERYBODY OPTIMISTIC

Reporter Visits City Factories and Shops and Gets Good Reports—Most Industries at Full Capacity and Little or No Change in Pay Rolls.

In a survey of the industrial concerns in the city made by a representative of The Star within the past few days, it was found that business conditions in this city had been but little affected by the recently changed conditions in the country. Most industries are running to full capacity, and anticipate little or no change in their pay rolls for the coming winter.

The Nestle's company which recently found an over production on condensed milk on the market, and which for that reason could not pay the existing prices in this section and consequently was forced to lay off a large number of employees, is shipping a considerable quantity of raw milk to the city markets every day. It is making a considerable quantity of butter and shipping about 500 cans of milk a day to New York city from the Oneonta district. The Oneonta plant was recently inspected by the New York City Health department and was passed upon by the inspector as being satisfactory and shipments of raw milk will soon be sent from here to that city. The local plant prior to overproduction was employing about 60 people, and at the present time is employing 12. With the raw product coming to the plant it is thought there will soon be an increased number of men employed.

Julius Kayser & Company, glove manufacturers, report their factory in full operation and are taking on new employees daily, and gradually increasing production. The local plant is engaged in the manufacture of silk gloves and the demand seems to be increasing. The cloth for the product is made and cut at Sidney, being sent here for the manufacture of gloves.

At the Paragon Silk company's plant at East End, business has been quiet for the past six months, due to an overcrowded market. They state that raw silk is now at the pre-war price, and expect to be running again at full capacity by the spring of the year. This plant is operating at 50 percent of its normal number of employees with a 49 percent production.

The Riverside Manufacturing company, manufacturers of overalls for men and boys, report as follows: "Due to the fact that the wholesale dry goods trade throughout the country are holding up on buying all the cotton market gets on a firm basis, the Riverside Manufacturing company is running on a reduced schedule of four days a week, but hope within a short time to be back on their regular full time schedule."

Spring business is reported as coming in fairly freely at the Quality Silk Mills, and they are hiring all the experienced help applying at the mill, as well as some beginners. This factory is making a complete product in this city, weaving the cloth at the East Street plant, and cutting and manufacturing at Market street. It is also building its own machinery at the Hickory street factory, which was purchased recently from the Briggs Lumber company.

The building materials trade remains practically on the same basis as it has been for some time, but if anything a little more favorable. There have been some reductions on the prices of building materials recently, but it is not generally thought this will have any great bearing on building in the immediate future.

HARDWARE STORE BURGLARY.

Bold Bandits Get Guns Monday Night From Demerco & Riley.

Sometime between closing time of the Demerco & Riley hardware store at 48 Main street on Monday evening and opening time the following morning, the store was broken into by burglars, who secured a double-barreled shot gun and a Remington 22 rifle. The firm always leaves the drawers of the cash register empty and open, but Tuesday morning they were found to be closed showing that the burglars had unsuccessfully looked it over. So far as can yet be ascertained, nothing more than above noted was taken. The total value of the guns is placed at about $40.

Entrance to the store was gained through the back door, the glass in a window of which was broken, and the bolts unfastened. While there has not as yet been any clue found as to the perpetrators, it is evident that the crime was committed early in the night, before the snow began to fall, as there were no tracks to be seen when the burglary was discovered in the morning. The police are making thorough investigation.

Heard in an Oneonta Store.

A girl clerk was telling a chum how she had safely placed $5 per month and that at compound interest, it had now rolled up to $243.45 and that in 79 months more she would thus have $1,000.00. Well, there are hundreds of girls in Oneonta who are getting double the wages that this girl is getting and who could easily place $10 per month and have $2,000.00. It's all peaches and cream now, but if they don't take advantage of this life and let five years pass by they may have to take in washings and the like later. The girl clerk was telling how the safe and sane Oneonta Building and Loan association was safely rolling up her money and she was delighted.

THIS NOVEMBER SNOW.

Impedes Travel on Many Roads—14 inches in Worcester, 5 in Stamford.

The snowfall of Tuesday morning, which since that time has a little been added to by occasional flurries, has made a bigger record for itself on the line of the Ulster and Delaware and on the Delaware and Hudson east of Oneonta than it has in this vicinity or even on the trolley summit at Jordanville and Henderson. On the trolley the estimated depth in the deep places is about six inches, and in Cooperstown there is much less; while up the valley of the Schoenewau creek through Worcester and East Worcester and on toward the Richmondville summit, it is stated that there is from twelve to fourteen inches. Telephone communication with East Worcester has been cut off since Monday night, but it is stated that the great weight of the snow broke down many wires and even the poles, and that it will be a day or two before wire communication is restored.

Heavy Snowfall at Stamford.

The Stamford correspondent to The Star says:

The heavy snowfall of Monday night, caused great trouble in both the electric lighting and the telephone systems. Many branches were broken from trees and in some cases the trees were broken off at the trunk by the heavy snow and wind.

Many wires were broken and the village was without lights for the entire day until night when a portion of the damage was repaired so that part of the village had the current. Many telephones were put out of commission and at this writing there are many patrons who have not yet had their phones put in order.

The snow fell very fast and as the temperature was quite high it accumulated great masses of water-weighted snow on every wire and support, breaking them in many places. Men have been at work continuously since early Tuesday morning at the repairs and there still remains a large amount of labor to be done before the services of both lines are back to normal.

Stamford seems to have had the bulk of the snowfall, as surrounding places report only a small depth as having fallen. There was about six inches deposited during the night.

Presentation of Medals and Dance.

This evening occurs the annual Thanksgiving dance of Company G at the state armory and in connection with the dance will be the presentation of medals awarded by the state of New York to those who served in Company G upon the Mexican border in 1916. Several days ago, the adjutant general of the state forwarded the medals to Captain Jackson and directed the men to appear this evening at the armory to receive them.

A Thanksgiving Proclamation

This is the day when we turn several hours into the music of Thanksgiving; when we rest from our labors and enjoy the day with chosen friends.

The music may be instrumental, vocal or within one's heart—the silent, happy kind that goes deeply into the soul.

There is that something within the human heart that—like the November candle—lights the way for future days and sheds its radiance all around; it's the happy smile that makes others happy, too, bringing a song of cheer and hope to some one less favored than yourself. That is the real meaning of Thanksgiving.

MARRIED AT ST. MARY'S.

R. W. Hunt Weds Miss Mary Steidle
—The Scott-Hannon Nuptials.

Mr. William Hunt, better known to his Oneonta friends as "Dick" Hunt, and Miss Mary Elizabeth Steidle, also of this city, were united in marriage yesterday afternoon at 4:30 o'clock by Rev. Father Noonan, pastor of St. Mary's Roman Catholic church. The ceremony was performed at the Grand street rectory in the presence of a few of the immediate relatives of the couple.

Miss Steidle wore an attractive traveling suit of brown duvetyne trimmed with sable, with hat to match, while her only attendant, Miss Anna W. Busted, of this city, wore a suit of dark delaine trimmed with beaver, and with hat to match. Abie Burdick of Maryland acted as best man.

After the ceremony, the bridal party was conveyed to the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Elizabeth Steidle, at 39 Grove street, where a delicious wedding repast was served under the direction of Mrs. Lottie Casteline and with Misses Geraldine Pidgeon and Elizabeth Busted as waitresses. The dining room was decorated with chrysanthemums and ferns from Wyckoff's and presented a very attractive appearance.

Mr. and Mrs. Hunt were given a rousing send-off by their many friends when they left on the evening train for their honeymoon, which will include Cincinnati, New Orleans and Albany. They expect to be absent for about a month and upon their return will be at home to their friends at 39 Grove street after January 1. The bride was the recipient of many beautiful wedding gifts, including silver, cut glass, linen, money and Liberty bonds.

Mr. Hunt has been a valued employee of the Delaware and Hudson in Oneonta for many years past, and is now a train dispatcher in the company's offices here. His bride, who is a daughter of Mrs. Elizabeth Steidle and the late Richard A. Steidle, has been a life-long resident of Oneonta and is a young woman with a wide circle of friends. For the past seven years, she has been a telephone operator, first with the Otsego and Delaware Telephone company and more recently with the Delaware and Hudson company. By all who know her, she is held in high esteem, and she will have the heartiest best wishes for a long and happy wedded life.

Scott-Hannon.

George R. Scott and Miss Susie A. Hannon were married yesterday morning at 9 o'clock at St. Mary's church by Rev. Father Noonan, with a nuptial mass. The pastor was assisted in the impressive ceremony by Father Riley of Worcester, who has been his guest. The young couple were attended by Frank Dillon of Binghamton and Miss Cecilia F. Hannon of Oneonta, respectively cousin and sister of the bride.

Mr. and Mrs. Scott expect to make their home in Herkimer, where the groom is moving picture operator at the Liberty theatre. The bride, who is a daughter of Simon P. Hannon of 26 Franklin street, has spent most of her life in this city and has many friends who will extend congratulations. She was the recipient of many fine wedding gifts.

Funeral of Mrs. Bevin.

The funeral services of the late Mrs. Mary Bevin were held from the home of her daughter, Mrs. Frank Bovit, at 11 Tully avenue, Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock, and were conducted by Rev. J. C. Johnson of the Elm Park church. Burial was in the family plot at the Plains cemetery by the side of her late husband.

There was a large attendance of neighbors and numerous floral pieces, among the latter being tributes from the U. of L. F. & E., Autumn lodge and from the neighbors in addition to those from the family and personal friends. The bearers were Charles Opal, Samuel Weir, Frank Bevin and John Gardner.

Relatives and friends present from away were Mrs. Arthur Schieffe of Schenectady, Mr. and Mrs. Hugh McKnight, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Gardner, Mrs. Emory Green and Frank McKnight, all of Otsego.

A RESIDENT SINCE 1872.

Mrs. Minerva E. Jackson Passes Away
at Residence Wednesday Afternoon.

Mrs. Minerva E. Jackson, widow of the late M. L. S. Jackson, who was long a merchant in this city, passed away at her residence, 17 Ford avenue, Wednesday afternoon at about 2 o'clock. Though an advanced years, she had been ill and confined to her room but a couple of days, death being due to the infirmities of age.

Born at Meredith June 5, 1845, the daughter of the late John G. and Anna (Boston) Graham, she was united in marriage with the late M. L. S. Jackson on Jan. 8, 1867, and the first years of their married life was passed at West Meredith. They moved to Oneonta in January, 1872, and the city has ever since been her home and among its citizens she has ever been esteemed as a woman of many virtues, one intensely devoted to her loved ones and for whom nothing was too great for her to do and do well. Quiet and unassuming, yet firm in her devotion to her family, church and friends, she will be missed in each of these circles.

Mrs. Jackson united with the Baptist church more than 50 years ago and she remained steadfast in the faith, although feeble health prevented her attendance upon church services for many years. She was a member of the First Baptist church of this city at the time of her death. She was a member of the Woman's Relief Corps, of which she had been president and treasurer and in the welfare of her associate members she took a deep interest. She had also for many years been an earnest member of the W. C. T. U.

Surviving her are one son, F. M. H. Jackson, secretary and treasurer of the Otsego Publishing company, and one daughter, Mrs. Alma E. J. Webster, also of this city. She leaves also one brother, J. Milo Graham, of Oneonta, two grandsons, Julian L. Jackson and Marshall Webster, and three great granddaughters, Margaret, Barbara and Virginia Jackson, all of this city.

The funeral services will be held from her late residence on Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Her pastor, Rev. Dr. E. J. Farley, will officiate and interment will be made in the family plot at Glenwood cemetery, where sleeps her husband, who passed away January 22, 1912.

Teachers out of Town.

Mrs. Ellen E. Hitchcock of the Normal left yesterday morning for Yonkers, where she will spend the Thanksgiving recess with her sister, Miss Jessica Hitchcock.

Mrs. May Hurlbutt left yesterday for New York city and will spend several days with her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Buckley, at Forest Hills.

Prof. George F. Williamson is at his home in Schenectady, where he remains for the balance of the week.

Miss Lucia Huntington of the Academy Street school is at her home in West Edmeston for the holiday.

Miss Bessie R. Cowan, instructor in public speaking in the Oneonta High school, left Wednesday for a several days' sojourn in Cortland.

Card of Thanks.

We wish to express our thanks to our friends and neighbors who assisted us in any way during the sickness and death of our dear mother, also for the beautiful flowers and use of the automobiles.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Bovit,
Mr. and Mrs. Frank Bevin,
Mrs. Anna Johnson.

Public Benefit Sale

A Sale That Will Enable the Public to Reap the Benefit of Lowering Prices at Once Instead of Gradual Reduction

There is no need of evading the question—You know as well as we do that prices on nearly every line of merchandise have been slightly lowered and there is a tendency of a gradual reduction.

When it comes to lowering prices "We Second the Motion." We are aware that we will be the losers, but will also confess that we are sick of the whole business and our only remedy is to get back on a stabilized market as soon as possible. To do this, we must take our medicine—so here we go—but wait—instead of taking it in piece-meals, we will take the whole dose at once and start

OLD WOMAN PROPOSES.

She Was Over a Century in Age—Wanted to Marry Aged Man.

"Better too late than never," is the philosophy of one of Omaha's oldest—in fact, the oldest—female residents. Mrs. Patrick Coover, aged 103, recently took advantage of the leap year opportunities and proposed to Daniel Kennedy, aged 100, of Seward, Neb., by the mail route.

Kennedy, who recently made a trip to New York and other cities, taking $10,000 with him, received the proposition with little enthusiasm. He stated that he was too busy at the present time to accept the invitation, and also declared that his lawyers had tied his money up so that marriage was almost out of the question.

A Day of Nature.

Thanksgiving day is our one national festival that turns on home life. It is not a day of ecclesiastical solemnity. It is not a patriotic anniversary. It is not a day celebrating a religious event. It is a day of nature. It is a day of Thanksgiving for the year's history. And it must pivot on the household. . . . Remember God's bounty brought the year. String the pearls of His goodness. Give this one day to thanks, to joy, to gratitude. Henry Ward Beecher.

Why Mr. Joe Armstrong, Celebrated Dog Trainer, Uses Rat-Snap

"Nopeed rats around my kennels, having hundreds of prize dogs, couldn't take chances. Tried RAT-SNAP. In three weeks every rat disappeared. Noticed that the dogs never went near RAT-SNAP. I tell my friends about RAT-SNAP. Use this sub-rendent exterminator, it's safe. Comes in cake form. Three sizes, 35c, 65c, $1.25. OLD TALE RETOLD

Origin of the American Thanksgiving Day.

Will Bear Repetition Annually as Something of Which Every Citizen May Be Proud.

The ancient Thanksgiving did not, as some have fancied, skip down the ages to find its home in America. In one way or another it seems to have always been observed. Throughout Europe, before the Reformation, special days were set apart as days of religious thanksgiving. The American Thanksgiving day is traced back to the Pilgrims.

Shortly after the landing of the Pilgrims, while searching for a suitable place in which to build their homes, they one day came upon some deserted Indian huts, in which they found some baskets filled with corn. From this supply they succeeded in saving enough to plant their first year's crop.

In the spring of 1621 the seed corn was sown and its growing watched anxiously by the people of the little colony. To their great joy, the harvest of the following October was a bountiful one. Governor Bradford ordered a three days' feast in celebration thereof. Wild turkeys, geese, ducks and water fowl, corn bread and vegetables no doubt formed the chief constituents of their feast, not to speak of the five deer brought in by a tribe of friendly Indians.

This festival is supposed to be the first real Thanksgiving day from which we date our celebration. This celebration, although without doubt the origin of our national Thanksgiving day, may be looked upon as merely a local observance, being held by the Plymouth colony only. They were the forerunners of less local celebrations in Massachusetts and gradually in other colonies, for in 1630 a public Thanksgiving day was observed in Boston by the Bay colony, and again in 1631.

During the next fifty years there were as many as 22 public Thanksgiving days appointed in Massachusetts, usually in October or November, after the gathering in of the harvests, or to celebrate some public benefit. It did not become a regular holiday until a long time afterward.

In 1789 Washington issued the famous Thanksgiving proclamation recommending Thursday, November 26, as a national day to be devoted to prayer and Thanksgiving. Washington's example was followed by other Presidents.

In 1863 President Lincoln appointed the fourth Thursday in November as the national Thanksgiving day. Since then the day has been observed annually without interruption.

WITH THE DAY'S WORK DONE

Thanksgiving Day May Be Likened to the Beginning of a Long and Pleasant Evening.

As each Thanksgiving day approaches it becomes more and more apparent to those who are in the habit of meditating upon affairs in general that the spirit of the occasion is one to inspire individual sensation, and that expression of that sensation falls short of the mark.

There is in the Thanksgiving season a sort of benign pause to the energies of the year, a subconsciousness of filled granaries and of hay packed in the barn loft, the cattle crunching in the stalls, and the drapery of the trees laid by for the approaching winter. It is the twilight of the year; the chimes are done and the men folks come stamping at the doorstep. The dinner is steaming on the table and soon, the food eaten, we will settle down for the long evening.

It has been a big day. The men folks have finished a mighty harvest in Europe and come home. We give thanks for those that come home because they are the living symbols of the nation's courage; and for those that will not come again save in the spirit, for they have been transfigured in the flame of the great conflict.

And there will be our thanks for the stout hearts of American mothers who here in silence and fortitude the burdens of their agonies; for these are the symbols of the nation's devotion to pure ideals.

His Narrow Escape.

Clarence and his nurse were promenading along the veranda at the summer resort hotel. A woman stopped them to speak to the pretty child, and, on hearing how he had accidentally rolled down the hotel steps, was profuse in sympathetic exclamations. "O, dear! O, what a narrow escape!" etc.

Clarence enjoyed her admiring sympathy so much that he added another flight of steps to the tumble when he related the episode to the next woman. By the time he reached the end of the veranda he had improved his story by rolling from the top floor of the hotel clear down to the steps outside the veranda, splashing off with:

"And I came near cracking my skull, too."

Tit for Tat.

The late Archbishop Benson once had to face criticism of the clergy as a body. It was urged that the bishops ought to see that better candidates were brought to them for ordination. Benson, with good humor, replied: "Well, you see, we bishops find ourselves in a difficult position, as we have only the laity to choose from."—London Morning Post.

TOO FAT TO MARRY

Answer Given by New York Man in Suit for Breach of Promise.

Henry Abelson, who admits his weight is between 250 and 300 pounds, appeared before Justice Tierney in the Supreme court in New York to defend a breach of promise of marriage action which Miss Clara Diamond had filed against him. As Miss Diamond did not appear, the case was dismissed.

Abelson cited his heavy weight as one reason why he would not have been a suitable husband for Miss Diamond. He said she weighed only 100 pounds. Then, too, he said Miss Diamond had represented to him that she "had money enough to support three husbands with ease."

Although he did not admit the promise of marriage, he was of the opinion that he was justified in not continuing his friendship for the plaintiff.

DIAMOND BRINGS BAD LUCK

Famous Hope Gem Causes Disaster to Its Latest Owner and His Family.

Misfortune continues to accompany ownership of the wonderful blue stone known as the Hope diamond, which has changed hands at frequent intervals because of the "bad luck" supposed to be attached to it.

Following the death of his little son in an accident in Paris, Edward B. McLean of Washington disposed of the jewel and it fell into the hands of the De Hauville family of Paris.

Disasters quickly overwhelmed the De Hauville family. Mme. De Hauville was killed by an automobile three months after her husband bought the stone. Then the eldest son drank poison and died under distressing circumstances. A sister was drowned a few months ago, and recently the youngest son of the family was killed by the bursting of a gun.

True food-fruits, delightful and beneficial at every meal, they may be served in a wide variety of ways.

Say Sealdsweet Soon

This week, Today, Now! To Your Fruit Dealer

Say to your fruit dealer:

"I want Sealdsweet grapefruit and oranges."

"This season I shall expect you to supply them to me regularly."

Say this to him right away, that he may have opportunity to provide for a stock of these superior grapefruit and oranges.

Say also that some nearby wholesale house will regularly furnish him Sealdsweet fruits out of carload shipments received direct from the cooperating growers who form the Florida Citrus Exchange.

Say Sealdsweet to your fruit dealer and keep on saying it; if he hesitates, tell him you insist on having Sealdsweet grapefruit and oranges. Most good dealers like to sell them because they give such satisfaction.

The Florida Citrus Exchange is a great body of 5,000 grapefruit and orange growers who sell their own fruits to avoid speculation in them.

Refrigeration and Meat

In less than an hour after an animal is dispatched in a Swift & Company packing plant, it is hanging up as meat in a room brought by refrigerating machinery to a temperature just above freezing.

From that time until it is in your own ice box—within two to three weeks—it is kept at the same temperature; first in the coolers at our packing plants; next on our refrigerator cars, more than 6,000 of which are constantly moving to market with their perishable cargoes; then in our refrigerator rooms at our branch selling houses; then in your dealer's ice box, and last in your own.

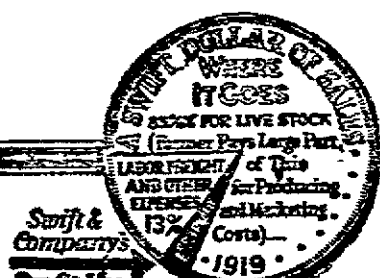

Only for the few minutes while it is being put into the refrigerator cars at our packing plants, or taken out of them at our branch houses, or whisked to your retailer in our trucks, is it exposed to any change of temperature.

Without a skilled use of this system of cooling, made possible by modern science, you could not get fresh meat, prepared under most sanitary conditions, except at greater expense—unless you happened to live so near live stock raising centers that your needs could be supplied from live stock raised near-by.

If the foregoing raises any question in the mind of the reader, we will endeavor to answer it, upon request.

AUTO THIEVES INDICTED

Herkimer County Follows Otsego in Taking Action Against Thayer, Porter and Hotaling.

Earl D. Thayer and Edward B. Porter of Oneonta and Lyman Hotaling of Sidney, the trio of auto thieves who late last summer fell into a clever trap, are indicted for their share of offenses by the Herkimer county grand jury in the report handed up in supreme court early this week. The jury had been in closed session for nine days, had examined 251 witnesses, and in all brought in ten open indictments and 42 sealed indictments. The prisoners will probably not be arraigned before the first of next week.

The indictments affecting the Oneonta gang of thieves were as follows: Earl D. Thayer and Edward B. Porter, of Oneonta, grand larceny, first degree, and burglary in the second degree. These men are alleged to have entered a barn at Lodi, N. Y., on June 4, this year, and having stolen from there an automobile belonging to Floyd Brooks of Ithaca, valued at $500.

Earl D. Thayer and Edward B. Porter, indicted for the same offense as foregoing in stealing from the barn of Albie F. Tucker on the Creek road, June 10, the Ford auto valued at $500.

Earl D. Thayer and Edward B. Porter charged and indicted with entering the garage of Gus L. Loderwick of Mohawk, October 17, 1919, and stealing a Ford car, 1919, five sets of tire chains and two lap robes.

Earl D. Thayer and Edward B. Porter indicted upon similar charges for stealing a Chalmers car from Dr. K. E. Osgood of Ithaca, June 12, value of car, $1,500.

Lyman Hotaling of Sidney, charged with grand larceny, first degree and burglary, second degree, in having stolen a car from Floyd Brooks of Ithaca on June 4. It was he, who, with Thayer and Porter, made up the sensational gang that made away with cars by the wholesale, and who were the victims of a carefully laid trap.

These three men are also under indictment in Otsego county for part they played in stealing autos in that vicinity, but it is not known here which county will have first rights in punishing them. Thayer is also under indictment in Binghamton and Plattsburg and if he serves prison terms for all of them he will have a lengthy sojourn. The three are scheduled to be tried at Cooperstown next month.

WEST END NEWS NOTES

Union Thanksgiving Service at Elm Park Church Thursday Evening—Local and Personal Mention.

There will be a Thanksgiving service in Elm Park Methodist church this (Thursday) evening, commencing at 7:30 o'clock, to which all are invited. A special musical program will be arranged and Rev. J. C. Johnson will preach a Thanksgiving sermon. It is hoped that there will be a large attendance.

Some Residential Changes.

Frank Bender moved his family Tuesday from the house he has been occupying at 112 Chestnut street to 112 Chestnut street. Mrs. Rose Brooks, who has lived at 112 Chestnut street, goes to her bungalow at 116 Sanford square of Corville, an employee of the N.Y. Food company, who has been stopping for some time at the home of W. H. Richards, Lower Chestnut street, will occupy rooms at 495 Chestnut street which Mr. Bender has vacated.

An Afflicted Family.

Mrs. Walter Crandall and all of her five small children are ill of diphtheria at the family home, 297 Chestnut street. Fortunately, the disease is in a mild form and the patients are reported to be gaining nicely. Dr. E. J. Parish is the attending physician, and Mr. Crandall, the only member of the family who escaped the malady, has been seeing care for his wife and children.

Undergoes Operation at Hospital.

Mrs. Helena Seaburg of 294 Chestnut street was at the Fox Memorial hospital last week, where she had her tonsils removed. Dr. McFarman performed the operation, and although Mrs. Seaburg was quite ill for a time, she was able to return to her home and is getting along nicely.

Frank Munroe Injured.

L. G. Wesshardt has just returned from a hunting trip to the Adirondacks, and although he spent several days in the woods he was unsuccessful in bringing home any big game. Frank Munroe, who accompanied Mr. Wesshardt when he left Oneonta, was forced to return last week as the result of an accident. While after the big game, Mr. Munroe fell over a cliff but managed to break his fall and was not seriously injured, aside from a few broken ribs and severe bruises.

Local News Notes.

F. M. Strong of Harrison avenue, who has been suffering for some time with blood poisoning in his hand, is much improved and was able to return to his work in the D. & H. shops this week.

Pauline Prindle, the little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bert Prindle of 213 Chestnut street, is confined to the home with a severe attack of bronchial trouble. Although in a serious condition, she is believed to be slightly improved, a fact which the many friends
